Johnson County extends building closures through 7:30 a.m. May 4, 2020

Johnson County, Iowa – The Johnson County Board of Supervisors voted today, Thursday, April 16, 2020, to extend the closure of Johnson County governmental buildings to the public, excluding the Johnson County Courthouse, through 7:30 a.m. on Monday, May 4, 2020. This is in line with Governor Kim Reynolds' earlier order to close other facilities to the general public. County buildings have been closed to the public since 5:30 p.m. on Tuesday, March 17. There is limited public access to the courthouse building.

In response to the COVID-19 disaster emergency, Governor Kim Reynolds issued a declaration extending the period to pay property taxes without accruing late fees to Thursday, April 30, 2020. To avoid a late fee penalty, payments need to be delivered to the Treasurer's Office through a mail slot on the door of the Johnson County Administration Building, paid online or postmarked by Thursday, April 30, 2020, to avoid a 1 ½ percent monthly penalty that will begin on Friday, May 1, 2020.

Johnson County continues to provide County services. Many Johnson County services are available online, by phone, or through mail or email. Contact information for all County departments and offices are available on the Johnson County website at www.johnson-county.com.
